ASPIRATIONAL ENSEMBLES

Original bathrooms designed with a point of view, an attitude, and an ambiance that builds on aspiration and intimacy. Each layered texture creates visual character to envelope and buoy a luxurious lifestyle.

As unique as the personality it was designed for – every Ensemble is a blend of various fixtures and faucets selected to build a story of functionality and quality based on artistic preference.

No two are alike, no two feature the same style, and each bathroom feels as though it were collected as carefully as one would gather life's experiences.

Walk through, skip around and then settle on what inspiration best suits your dreams and your design.

Layering— where pattern and texture intersect, this ensemble brings soft shapes all to rest on silvery finishes – the sophisticated aubergine palette calms and soothes. A perfect blend of traditional and contemporary influences, combining these fixtures builds eclectic trends.

Open Concept— where urban lofts and California contemporaries live large – white on white with neutral backgrounds to build interest and bring in the organic. Wide-open spaces that use tone-on-tone color can be glamourized with shiny surfaces to help bounce light all around the room.

Kitchen Sinks · Installation options

More Flexibility

The London™ Farm Sinks have the most flexible installation options available today. These sinks are finished on all sides, which opens up all kinds of installation opportunities for the homeowner, designer or builder.

Available in three sizes, in either stainless or fine fire clay, there are four different installation options for any of the London Farm Sinks.

The most recognizable and traditional option is the Under Counter with Exposed Apron countertop installation. Three sides of the sink's top edge are covered by the countertop and the apron is exposed. This is a great option for traditional homes such as the English Tudor, Italianate, Mediterranean or French Country style homes.

The Above Counter with Exposed Apron is another traditional installation option. This is an outstanding choice for farmhouse style homes, bungalows and cottages.

A contemporary installation option is the Flush Mount with Exposed Apron. This is where the sink's top edge is exposed and flush to the countertop while leaving the apron exposed. This style is for contemporary or transitional homes where some historic details are evident in the kitchen.

Another popular option is the Full Undercounter installation where the entire sink edge is covered by countertop. This is the most contemporary style of installation and works well in lofts and modern architecture. (See opposite page.)

No matter how the London Farm Sinks are installed, their classicism is everlasting, and their added functionality unwavering from every side, in every way.

Each option offers a single control for both turning water on and regulating the temperature. Two of the faucets, the Basil™ and the Coriander™ also contain a pull-down, single function hose. Available in two, three or four different finishes, this entire collection of faucets works in any home from the most traditional to ultra modern.

119

The Pull Down Collection of faucets offer added functionality to four of the single lever faucets. The Basil™, Cayenne™, Coriander™ and Victorian each come with a dual function hand spray built into the spout. Each of the sprays works better for different tasks – one is lighter and better for rinsing and one is stronger and better for washing. In every way, these four faucets are built to handle various tasks with convenience and ease and are available in three or four different finishes.

121

The Pull Out Collection of faucets offer added functionality to four of the single lever faucets. The Basil™, Coriander™, Victorian and Glance® each have a hand sprayer that pulls out from the stem of the faucet. This dual function sprayer gives more range of motion for the user and allows for two different types of spraying – one lighter and one stronger. Each of these four faucets is available in three or four finishes and a wide range of styles from traditional to contemporary.

125

The five Bar Faucets are a collection of single lever faucets all with similar styling to their single lever kitchen faucet counterpart. These faucets are perfect for a secondary sink placed on an island, in a pantry or around a bar area. Reduced in size this faucet collection fits well under cabinetry, shelving or a bar top.

Two of these faucets, the Basil™ and Coriander™, also come with a pull-down hose. Mix or match, this collection will add more functionality to your entertainment areas.

The Cold Tap Collection includes two faucet styles to blend with whatever JADO® faucet you choose to complement your main kitchen design. The cold taps work with most water filtration systems and come in three or four finishes.

Now all the faucets in your home can build a look that you've designed from beginning to end with fantastic finishes and functionality.

This is where you find it – everything from beginning to end for comparing and contrasting – this is the place to dream, aspire and design into reality. The Product Index is the designer’s inspiration, with shapes, sizes, finishes and product information to help you shop, imagine and select your bathroom or kitchen – just the way you want it. Opposite page: Veneto® Series one-piece high efficiency elongated water closet, Sapho II® pedestal lavatory with towel bar and Glance® widespread faucet.
